

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. BOOK-AUCTION RECORDS

Edited by FRANK KARSLAKE

Volume II. now ready, containing 15,751 Records, Four Literary Supplements, and Four Plates, bound in cloth, top edges gilt, Price £1 1s. net, delivered free in any part of the world.

THE most Extensive, the Brightest, the Best publication of its kind; edited by a Bookseller, who, as the result of 38 years' practical experience in the Auction-rooms, knows exactly what information is required, and what verbiage to exclude. Book-Auction Records states the price realised by every book of importance at Sotheby's, Christie's, Puttick & Simpson's, Hodgson's, and Stevens's Auction-rooms, as well as books occurring at exceptional sales elsewhere, together with many more general books; and as books which realise less than £1 are included the work has a far wider scope as a bibliographical tool than any other publication of its kind. In Volume II. the Third Folio Shakespeare sold at Bangor in February 1905, is included, and the sale of the Elizabethan Stage Society's effects at Chelsea, in July, 1905. Book-Auction Records is issued in Four Quarterly Parts, viz.: on January 30th, April 30th, July 30th, and September 30th, being in the first three cases one month after the close of each quarter's sales, and in the last case within two months of the close of the auction-season. Each part is arranged alphabetically, so that any book recorded can be found at a glance, and with the fourth part an Index for the year is included. The Plates in Volume II. are (1) Puttick & Simpson's Auction-room, (2) The Bodleian Library copy of the First Folio Shakespeare, (3) 'Sotheby's,' a Typical Sale, with Portraits of notable Booksellers, (4) The House of Aldus Manutius at Venice. The Supplements include an account of the Bodleian Shakespeare; Reminiscences of Sotheby's; an account of Ludwig Rosenthal, of Munich; and revisals of current bibliographical errors; together with analytical guides to Booksellers' Catalogues which should be the means of bringing bookmen into communication in all parts of the world. The Olique (the recognised organ of the second-hand book trade) says: "The publication makes two or three very valuable steps in the direction of perfection, and deserves special encouragement. It was a particularly happy idea throwing the records into one alphabet, and the enormous amount of time saved in referring will appeal to every one who has wearied himself by looking up all the indexed records of the old style arrangement." The Athenaeum, August 5th, 1905, refers to "its solid value as a book of reference." The commendations of subscribers are too numerous to quote; two examples alone must suffice—(a) "All 'men of books' cannot but be charmed with your enterprise and spirit in bringing out this valuable publication, which is far above all others of a like character." (b) "It is indispensable to all booksellers, who get the result of a tremendous amount of labour for very little money." A Key to the Sales accompanies each part. In order that intending subscribers may judge for themselves before deciding, Volume II. will be sent, post free, on inspection, anywhere, upon application.

Preface.

*I*N the compilation of this, the Seventh issue, of the INTERNATIONAL DIRECTORY OF BOOKSELLERS, the object has been to provide information, at once exhaustive and concise, in all departments with which the work deals.

It will be evident from a very cursory inspection of this volume, that, as compared with previous issues, it contains much additional matter. The tendency in every section is towards expansion, and especially in the pages devoted to the British Possessions.

Among the subjects introduced for the first time may be mentioned: "Bookbinders in London and the Provinces;" "Record and Literary Searchers, Translators, and Indexers;" "Colonial and Foreign Learned and Scientific Societies;" "Literary Agents;" "South African Public Schools," and "American Educational Institutions."

The number of Municipal Free Libraries in the United Kingdom has increased from 340 in 1903, to 472 in 1906. Many small towns and rural districts have adopted the Free Libraries' Acts, where the Acts have not yet been carried into effect, from causes chiefly of a financial character. A good number of non-municipal Libraries, formerly connected with Mechanics' Institutes, Co-operative Societies, and the like, have become extinct, or are merged in the local Free Libraries.

The intention to include in this issue a comprehensive list of Pen Names and Real Names of Authors has been frustrated from want of space. An excellent compilation of "Fictitious Names used by Authors and Book Illustrators" appeared in the Third Edition of the Directory (1891). This edition, long out-of-print, may be consulted in the leading Public Libraries. In the present issue eighty extra pages of the book are occupied with additional and indispensable information.

The Editor ventures to hope that he may continue to enjoy the friendly help of subscribers in every part of the world in his efforts to maintain the Directory as the most reliable reference book of its kind published. Errors may, and probably will be found in a work which covers so wide a field. When discovered it is to be hoped they will be intimated to the Editor, who will at all times be glad to receive suggestions, or to correct mistakes which may be brought to his notice.

Attention is particularly directed to ADDITIONS AND CHANGES during printing, on pages x. and xi.

ALDINE PRESS PUBLICATIONS.

Sketches and Rhymes in the Rochdale Dialect, by JOHN TRAFFORD CLEGG, "Th' Owd Weighver," with Portrait and Views; 2 vols., each 500 pages, demy 8vo., cloth, £1 1s. net.

One of the choicest dialectical productions in the County Palatine.—Bury Guardian. This volume, on its merits, is worthy of a place in every library.—Liverpool Mercury. He writes the dialect as only one can do who has learnt to speak it in childhood.—Manchester Guardian.

As a dialect writer he was probably unsurpassed. He had a marvellous knowledge of the folk-speech of the district, and in acquiring the dialect he became so thoroughly impregnated with the spirit and genius of the people that his writings are filled with its homely humour and pathos.—Rochdale Observer.

Writings of Oliver Ormerod, with Memoir, by HENRY COLLEY MARCH, M.D. LOND., F.S.A. Portrait, and the original humorous Illustrations to the "Felley fro Rachde," drawn by Frederick J. Shields and engraved by Robert Langton; cr. 8vo., art cloth, 5/- net.

Racy sketches, bubbling over with humour, sparkling with homely wit that is racy of the soil.—Rochdale Observer.

Not the least interesting part of this volume is Dr. March's account of Oliver Ormerod's life, in the course of which there are some delightful glimpses of a character rich in Quaker-like simplicity and sterling goodness of heart.—Literary World.

We imagine that many readers will prize the book for the sake of the earlier illustrations drawn by F. J. Shields. These represent the now well-known artist in a light which will be quite new to many who know the lofty ideal work of his later years.—Manchester Guardian.

Memoir of John Kay, of Bury, County of Lancaster, Inventor of the Fly-Shuttle, Metal Reeds, &c., with a Review of the Textile Trade and Manufacture from earliest times, by JOHN LORD. Introduction by Archibald Sparke, Librarian of Bolton Free Library. Portraits and Views; cr. 8vo., cloth, 4/- net.

Bygone Bury, County of Lancaster, by JOHN LORD, with Portrait of the Author; cr. 8vo., cloth, 2/6 net.

Mystery o' Sunny Fowt and Fotchin Relief. Stories largely in the Lancashire Dialect, by PETER LEE (formerly Member of the Rochdale School Board), Photogravure Portrait of the Author; cr. 8vo., cloth, 5/- net.

Transactions of the Rochdale Literary and Scientific Society for 27 years (1878-1905); 8 vols. (all issued), fully illustrated, 8vo., cloth, 24/- net.

Dr. J. H. Wylie, Dr. J. R. Ashworth, Dr. H. C. March, Lieut.-Col. Fishwick, Rev. Canon Wilson, Charles Heape, S. S. Platt, M.INST.C.E., W. H. Sutcliffe, F.G.S., and many other notable Authors, contribute valuable papers to these volumes.

Annals of Rochdale, a Chronological History of the Town, A.D. 950 to 1898, by R. D. MATTLEY, Esq.; cr. 8vo., cloth, 1/6 net.

Registers of the Parish of Rochdale, in the County of Lancaster, 1582-1641, including copy of transcripts of Registers of Todmorden Chapels for the years 1624, 1625, 1628, 1632, and 1633, the originals of which are lost, by Lieut.-Col. FISHWICK, F.S.A.; demy 8vo., cloth, £1 1s. net.

Registers of the Parish Church of Felkirk, in the Diocese of York, from 1701-1812, edited by A. NORA J. ROYDS, with copious Index; 8vo., cloth, 10/6.

Duckworth (James, Esq., M.P. for Stockport) A Trip round the World, with Illustrations; 8vo., cloth, 2/-.

March (HENRY COLLEY, M.D. LOND., F.S.A.)—Ancestral Man, or Flints and who fashioned them; illustrated, 8vo., 1/-.

History of Exorcism; 8vo., 1/-.

Memoir on the Roman Road over Blackstone Edge, with Illustration of the Road, 8vo., 1/-.

Wilkinson (JOHN F., B.A.), A Perpetual Mental Calendar, 6d.

Furnishes a method by which, in a few seconds, the day of the week corresponding to any date in the Christian era, may be ascertained without reference to any table.

PUBLISHERS & BOOKSELLERS,
OCCULT LITERATURE IN GENERAL.

THE
Metaphysical Magazine

EDITED BY

LEANDER EDMUND WHIPPLE and
ALEXANDER WILDER, M.D., F.A.S.

A Quarterly Review of Science, Psychology, Philosophy,
Metaphysics, and Occult Subjects.

The Metaphysical Magazine marks an important era in Literature, it is the one live issue on all Advanced Thought Subjects and is of incalculable value.

It is the pioneer of Occult and Metaphysical publications, established in 1895. In every part of the civilized world it is recognised as the leader in Metaphysical Thought and an authority on Occult subjects.

"This magazine is capitally edited and contains much of extraordinary interest."—Der Sonntagmorgen, Cincinnati, O.

"It is a publication that appeals to the more thoughtful and cultured class of readers."—The Herald, Syracuse, N. Y.

96 Pages, Full Magazine Size. Quarterly.
One Dollar a Year, 25 Cents a Copy.

THE WISE-MAN

EDITED BY

LEANDER EDMUND WHIPPLE and
Mrs. EVA BEST.

A Monthly Periodical of Occult Science and Wisdom, simplified and applied to every-day life; helpful to everybody and interesting to all.

Auction Prices of Books

A REPRESENTATIVE RECORD ARRANGED IN ALPHABETICAL ORDER.

From the Commencement of the English "Book Prices Current" in 1886, and the American "Book Prices Current" in 1894 to 1904, and including some thousands of important Auction Quotations of Earlier Date.

EDITED BY

LUTHER S. LIVINGSTON.

VOL. I. NOW READY. A Prospectus will be sent on application.

In Demy 8vo, bound in buckram, and printed on good paper, with broad margin for Notes, price £1 7s. 6d. net.

THE NEW (Nineteenth) VOLUME OF BOOK PRICES CURRENT

Being a Record of the Prices at which Books have been Sold at Auction, the Titles and Descriptions in full, the Catalogue Numbers, the Names of the Purchasers, and Special Notices containing the Prices for Season 1905.

"'Book Prices Current' is a trustworthy guide and a reference book of the greatest value."—Athenæum.

"The book-lover is a man content with small satisfactions. If he cannot afford the volume he covets, he can at least enjoy the delirious delight of reading about it, watching its value in the auction-room, and finding out how much it fetched in the past."—St. James's Gazette.

Some of the earlier volumes of "Book Prices Current" are out of print and greatly advanced in price. Information concerning these can be had on application to the publisher; the more recent ones can still be had at the published price.

NOW READY.

In Demy 8vo, bound in buckram, uniform with BOOK PRICES CURRENT,
Price One Guinea net.

THE INDEX TO THE FIRST 10 VOLUMES OF BOOK PRICES CURRENT 1887 TO 1896:

CONSTITUTING A REFERENCE LIST OF SUBJECTS AND, INCIDENTALLY,
A KEY TO ANONYMOUS AND PSEUDONYMOUS LITERATURE.

"If money, as Anthony Trollope neatly put it, be the reward of labour, too much is certainly not asked for the labour which has 'marshalled into order a manuscript involving 33,000 distinct titles and considerably over 500,000 numerals.' The typographical arrangement of the volume will receive praise from those who can understand the difficulties of the printer's task."—Guardian.

SOME FACTS RELATING TO
PUBLISHERS' CIRCULAR
AND BOOKSELLERS' RECORD.

IT is the leading and oldest paper representing the British and Irish Publishing and Bookselling trade.

It gives particulars of all new books with sizes, prices, and publishers' names.

In addition to its special circulation amongst the principal firms in the Book Trade at Home and Abroad, it has a general circulation amongst Literary Men, Authors, Librarians, Book Collectors, Printers, Secretaries of Clubs, &c.

Each number contains advertisements for many hundreds of books wanted to purchase.

The Annual Subscription includes the large EXPORT and EDUCATIONAL NUMBERS; also the SPECIAL ILLUSTRATED CHRISTMAS NUMBER, which contains over THREE HUNDRED ILLUSTRATIONS, selected from the best and most artistic volumes of the Season; and every Annual Subscriber has the privilege of a Four Title Advertisement gratis each week in the Out-of-Print Books Wanted Column, and can have extra titles at 3d. a title.

It appears every Friday evening for Saturday, and Advertisements should be sent to the Publisher, St. Dunstan's House, Fetter Lane, London, E.C., not later than twelve o'clock on Wednesday, and earlier when proofs are desired.

Terms of Subscription, Payable in Advance:

For One Year, post free to any part of Great Britain & Ireland...	8s. 6d.

Established in 1864 for supplying American Libraries, Private Bookbuyers and the Trade with English and Continental Books, Periodicals, and other wants of Public and Private Libraries.

Reports of Scarce Books of all kinds, Illuminated and other Manuscripts, Drawings, Engravings, etc., which Booksellers or other owners may be desirous of disposing of, are respectfully requested. All offers receive immediate attention and reply.

4, TRAFALGAR SQUARE, CHARING CROSS, LONDON, W.C.

We want to convince you

of the great value of the

COTGREAVE INDICATORS

They are perfectly suited to any possible system of library work, and give the most complete records with the least labour—the most convenient indicators to the public and staff. Some libraries use them for as few as 1,000 books, others for over 100,000 books—altogether hundreds of libraries use them. This shows exceptional merit and adaptability.

The sales of the Cotgreave Indicators for one half-year exceed the sales of other indicators for several years, and our sales are constantly increasing.

Can we send you our prospectus containing some of our numerous testimonials? Many from librarians who have used several kinds of indicators.

EVERY REQUISITE FOR LIBRARY WORK.

NAVAL LIBRARIES.

Every ship in the Navy possesses a Library according to the number of her crew—ranging from about 800 for the largest to 300 for the smallest ship. The Library is in charge of a schoolmaster when the ship carries one, otherwise this duty is carried out by a writer.

In all training ships for boys there is a library for their exclusive use, containing books, papers, and periodicals, the cost of which is defrayed from a fund to which each boy contributes twopence per month. The naval chaplain, with the assistance of the head schoolmaster, manages this fund.

Public Libraries and School Children.

In Manchester and Salford, England, admirable arrangements have recently been made with the object of leading school children to make more use of the Free Libraries. Schoolmasters as well as Librarians have recognised the advantage to the boys, as may be seen from the following "rules" circulated among his boys by the head master of a Roman Catholic school in Ancoats:—

RULES.

Remember that in using the Library you are exercising one of the privileges conferred on you as a young citizen of the great City of Manchester, and you should, therefore, be very careful to observe the following rules:—

1. Be clean always—in going to the library and in using the books. (Don't let the baby—who is blamed for so much—tear or dirty the books).
2. Prepare your list of books beforehand.
 - (a) On clean paper.
 - (b) In good handwriting.
 - (c) Each book with its author's name and its proper number.
 (See your own list on the class notice board in the school).
3. Bring your books for inspection and for private reading every Friday morning.
4. Give as little trouble as possible to the Librarian and to the lady assistants. Be thoughtful. Don't go when they are busy. Go when things are quiet, during the day, before 5 p.m.
5. Don't keep the books out longer than the time allowed.
6. Books must not be borrowed for grown-up people on boys' cards. The head master signs vouchers for the boys only.
7. If you lose your card, go and tell the Librarian at once. He will give you a new one.
8. If you flit, leave your new address at the Library.
9. Lastly, read, write, think, and—pray.

IN that gigantic work, the British Museum Catalogue, Shakespeare has two volumes devoted exclusively to him. Sir Walter Scott has just over 1,000 entries under his name, covering 80 pages. Under the name of Dickens there are 752 entries, covering 41 pages. Thackeray falls far behind his rival in this respect, with 223 entries spread over 21 pages. Of lady novelists George Eliot has 123 entries on 6 pages, and Charlotte Brontë 70 on 4. Of Victorian poets Tennyson, of course, takes the lead, with 481 entries spread over 35 pages, while Browning has to be content with less than half that number—226 entries on 11 pages. John Ruskin has 315 entries on 26 pages.—Daily News.

Contractions in Booksellers' Catalogues.

As everybody knows, booksellers, and more particularly literary auctioneers, are in the habit of using contractions with the object of saving space, and consequently expense. These contractions are common knowledge to book-hunters and others who are in the habit of poring over catalogues; but to the ordinary and casual reader they are sometimes little better than a series of hieroglyphics, the meaning of which may be guessed at in some cases, though certainly not in all. The following list of contractions will no doubt prove useful on occasion, as it includes all that are commonly looked upon by English cataloguers as "orthodox." Contractions can, of course, be invented to any extent considered necessary; but the tendency of the present day is rather to curtail their number than to augment a list which many people may perhaps regard as already too extensive.

A. N.—Absque nota. Without any place of publication, date, or other particulars of issue being given on the title-page, or colophon.

Bd.—Bound.

Bds.—Boards. A species of binding in common use before the invention of cloth covers in 1826. A book bound in "boards" has the appearance of being covered with thick millboard, usually of some shade of brown, but sometimes blue, green, or yellow.

C.—Circa, about; thus c. 1815—i.e., about the year 1815.

Cf.—Calf. A species of binding of boards, covered with calf-skin.

Cl.—Cloth, sometimes called cl. bds., i.e., cloth-boards; mill-board, covered with cloth, ornamented or plain. This is the binding now in common use.

Col.—Coloured.

Ed.—Edition.

Engs.—Engravings.

Ex.—Extra. A term applied to any binding of a superior kind, well "forwarded," with marble end-papers, silk "headbands," and a good deal of gilt.

Fly-l.—Fly-leaf. A blank leaf at the beginning or end of a book.

Fol.—Folio. A term referring to the size of a book printed on paper folded into two leaves, or four pages.

Front.—Frontispiece. An ornamental figure or engraving fronting the title-page.

G. e.—Gilt edges.

Gr.—Greek.

Gt.—Gilt.

G. t.—Gilt top. See T. e. g.

Hf.—Half.

Hf. bd.—Half-bound.

Ills.—Illustrations.

L.—Leaf.

Lat.—Latin.

Lib.—Library.

Ll. or ll.—Leaves.

L. p.—Large paper. Many books are printed on larger-sized paper for the sake of variety. The ordinary issues will perhaps be 8vo. size, and a limited number of copies will be printed in 4to. These contain the same text, but may be printed on better paper and have illustrations of a superior quality. Their cost is usually double that of the ordinary copies.

M. e.—Marbled edges. The edges of books are sometimes, though not very often, grained so as to resemble marble.

Mor.—Morocco. A species of superior leather binding.

Mot.—Mottled. Referring to books with mottled or powdered edges.

MS.—A contraction for Manuscript. The plural form is MSS.

N. d.—No date.

Ob.—Oblong.

Orig.—Original.

Pl.—Plate; i. e., full-page illustration.

Port.—Portrait.

Pp. or pp.—Pages.

Pt.—Part or number, as when a book is published in parts.

Pub.—Published.

R. e.—Red edges.

Rox.—Roxburghe. A species of binding, modelled on that used for the publications of the Roxburghe Club.

Roy.—Royal. A qualifying adjective applied to sizes of books, thus—roy. 8vo., roy. 4to.

Russ.—Russia. A species of leather used in binding books.

S. a.—Sine anno; i. e., without any date being mentioned on the title-page.

Shp.—Sheep. A binding of sheepskin.

Sig.—Signature. The small capital letter or figure under the foot-line of the first page of each sheet of a book; it is placed there as a guide to the binder. In many instances a second signature, e. g., B2, is placed on the third page.

S. l.—Sine loco; i. e., without any place of publication being mentioned on the title-page or elsewhere.

S. l. et a.—Sine loco et anno; i. e., without either place of publication or date being mentioned on the title-page or elsewhere.

Sm.—Small; e. g., sm. 8vo., sm. 4to.

S. nom. imp.—Sine nomine impressoris. Without printer's name.

T. e. g.—Top edges gilt. See G. t.

Tir a part.—Tirage a part. Published in parts.

Trans.—Translated.

Unbd.—Unbound. A book in sheets as it comes from the printer's is of course unbound. When a pamphlet is issued without a cover, as sometimes happens, it is said to be "stitched."

V., v.—Vers, about; also volume.

Vel.—Vellum. — A reference to the binding.

Vol.—Volume.

V. y.—Various years. A bundle of pamphlets published at different times would be described as of v. y.

W. a. f.—With all faults. The book is sold with all imperfections.

Y. e.—Yellow edges.

Sizes of Books.

THE name indicates the number of pages in the sheet, thus: in a folio book, four pages or two leaves—one sheet; a quarto, or 4to, eight pages or four leaves to a sheet; an octavo, or 8vo, sixteen pages or eight leaves to a sheet. In a 12mo, twenty-four pages, or twelve leaves—one sheet; and the 18mo, thirty-six pages, or eighteen leaves—one sheet, and so on. The following are approximate sizes of books, over all:—

Royal folio	19 in. by 12	Foolscap 8vo	7 in. by 4½
Demy folio	18 " 11	12mo	7 " 4
Super imperial 4to. 15½	" 13	16mo	6½ " 4
Royal 4to	12½ " 10	Square 16mo	4½ " 3½
Demy 4to	11½ " 8½	Demy 18mo	6 " 4
Crown 4to	11 " 8	Royal 24mo	5½ " 3½
Royal 8vo	10 " 6½	Demy 24mo	5 " 2½
Medium 8vo	9½ " 6	Royal 32mo	5 " 3
Demy 8vo	9 " 5½	Post 32mo	4 " 2½
Crown 8vo	7½ " 5	Demy 48mo	3½ " 2½

The associated librarians of Great Britain, realising that the words folio, quarto, octavo, duodecimo, etc., have ceased to possess any specific meaning, have agreed to define the sizes of books by height measurement, as follows:—

Sizes.	Abbreviations.	Size in inches.	Sizes.	Abbreviations.	Size in inches.
Large folio.....	La. fo.....	over 18	Large octavo	La. 8vo.....	below 11
Folio	Fol.....	below 18	Octavo	8vo.....	below 9
Small folio	Sm. fol.....	below 18	Small octavo	Sm. 8vo.....	below 8
Large quarto	La. 4to.....	below 18	Duodecimo	12mo.....	below 8
Quarto	4to.....	below 11	Decimo octavo	18mo.....	is 6
Small quarto	Sm. 4to.....	below 8	Minimo	Mo.....	below 6

According to this scale, the size of the sheet and the number of times it is folded no longer determine the size of books. The foot rule or yard stick settles it. The height, and, in the case of quartos, the width of the cover is measured, and according to the number of inches recorded the book receives its designation. This is by far the preferable way. Formerly nearly every paper-maker had his own standard sizes of sheets. The result was endless confusion in the nomenclature of sizes. Under this rule he can persist in them without confounding the bibliographer.

The following sizes of books are taken from the catalogue of the Riverside Press, the "highest authority in the United States"—Volumes described as 32mo, although not in all cases uniform, usually measure 4 inches in width by 5½ inches in height; 18mo, 4½ by 6 in.; 16mo, 5 by 7 in.; 12mo, 5½ by 7½ in.; crown 8vo, 5½ by 8 in.; 8vo, 6 by 9 in.; royal 8vo, 7½ by 10 in.; 4to, 10 by 12½ in.; and folio, 13 by 15 in. Special sizes, such as small 4to, square 16mo, etc., are modifications of the sizes named above.

COPYRIGHT REGISTRY.

Instructions for Registration of Books first published within the British Dominions under the provisions of the Copyright Acts, 5 and 6 Vict., c. 45, and 49 and 50 Vict., c. 33.

BOOK.—The term "Book" means and includes every volume, part or division of a volume, pamphlet, sheet of letterpress, sheet of music, map, chart, or plan, separately published.

TERM OF COPYRIGHT IN BOOKS.—If published in lifetime of author, then forty-two years from publication or life of author and seven years from his death, whichever shall be the longer term.

If published after author's death, then proprietor has copyright for forty-two years from first publication.

The copyright in articles in encyclopædias, reviews, magazines, periodical works, or works published in a series of books or parts, belongs to the proprietor of the work when such articles have been composed upon the terms that the copyright shall belong to him and shall have been actually paid for by him; but after twenty-eight years from first publication the right of publishing in separate form such articles as have been published in reviews, magazines, or other periodical works of a like nature reverts to the author; and during such twenty-eight years the proprietor may not publish separately without the previous consent of the author or his assigns. Authors may by contract reserve to themselves the right of publishing in a separate form before the expiration of the twenty-eight years.

NECESSITY FOR REGISTRATION.—Copyright is created by the Statute, and does not depend upon registration, which is permissive only and not compulsory, but no proprietor of copyright in any book can take any proceedings in respect of any infringement of his copyright, unless he has, before commencing his proceedings, registered his book.

MODE OF REGISTRATION.—A proprietor of copyright desiring to register at Stationers' Hall must lodge there a demand signed by him and witnessed, in the form prescribed, together with a FEE of 5s. for each entry.

Special care should be taken that the full and proper title of the book, and the correct day, month, and year of first publication are entered, as any error or omission may invalidate the entry.

A book cannot be registered before it is published.

A proprietor of the copyright in an encyclopædia, review, magazine, periodical work, or other work published in a series of books or parts, will be entitled to all the benefits of registration upon his registering the first volume, number, or part.

MUSIC.—Proprietors of copyright in musical compositions entitled to, and desirous of retaining the right of, public representation or performance, must print on the title-page of every copy a notice to the effect that the right of public representation or performance is reserved.

ASSIGNMENTS.—Registered copyrights, or any share or shares thereof, may be assigned, without payment of any stamp duty, by the registered proprietor lodging, at Stationers' Hall, a demand signed by him in the form prescribed by the Statute, together with a fee of 5s. Forms of Assignment can be obtained at Stationers' Hall.

CERTIFIED COPIES of entries are supplied on payment of a FEE of 5s. each, and such copies are prima facie proof of the matters alleged therein.

SEARCHES.—A printed Lexicographical Index of all Literary Works registered between 1842 and 1902 is provided for the use of persons desirous of searching the Book Register. The statutory fee for each entry searched for is 1s.

BRITISH MUSEUM AND LIBRARIES AT OXFORD, CAMBRIDGE, EDINBURGH, AND DUBLIN.—A copy of every book published (whether registered at Stationers' Hall or not) and of any second or subsequent edition containing additions or alterations, must be delivered at, or forwarded by post or rail carriage prepaid to, the British Museum immediately after publication; and four copies should be delivered at Stationers' Hall for the Bodleian Library at Oxford, the Public Library at Cambridge, the Library of the Faculty of Advocates at Edinburgh, and the Library of Trinity College at Dublin.

NEWSPAPERS.—Proprietors registering newspapers at Stationers' Hall should also register at Somerset House, pursuant to the Newspaper Libel and Registration Act, 1881 (44 and 45 Vict., c. 60). This Act does not extend to Scotland. For forms apply to the Registrar, Companies' Registration Office, Somerset House, London, W.C.

BRITISH POSSESSIONS.—Books first published in any British Possession which does not provide for registration should be registered at Stationers' Hall.

INTERNATIONAL COPYRIGHT.—Under the provisions of the Berne Convention, books copyright in Great Britain are protected in the following countries:—Belgium, France, Germany, Italy, Spain, Switzerland, Tunis, Hayti, Luxembourg, Monaco, Norway, Japan, Denmark (including the Farøe Islands, but excluding Iceland, Greenland, and the Danish Antilles), and Sweden.

UNITED STATES, &c.—To secure copyright in Great Britain of works intended to be published in America and other foreign countries (except the Kingdoms and States represented in the Austrian Reichsrath) which have not adopted the provisions of the Berne Convention, simultaneous first publication in the United States or other foreign country and in the United Kingdom or a British Possession is essential, and upon registering such works the name of the publisher and place of publication in the United Kingdom or British Possession must in all cases be inserted.

FOREIGN REPRINTS.—Proprietors of books first composed, or written, or printed in the United Kingdom, desiring to prevent the importation of foreign reprints, are advised to give notice in writing to the Commissioners of Customs, accompanied by a statutory declaration that the copyright subsists, and when it will expire. Registration at Stationers' Hall is also necessary before duties can be levied for the benefit of the proprietor of copyright on foreign reprints of British copyright works imported into the Bahamas, Barbados, Bermuda, British Guiana, Cape of Good Hope, Grenada, Jamaica, Natal, Nova Scotia, Newfoundland, Prince Edward Island, St. Christopher, St. Lucia, and St. Vincent.

Applicants not conversant with the mode of registration are recommended in all cases to forward with the demand for registration a copy of the Book to be registered for comparison before entry, as no alteration can be made in the "Register," or any error corrected, except by an Order of the High Court of Justice, or one of the Judges thereof.

All communications to be addressed, to The Registrar, Stationers' Hall, London, E.C.

Book-Plates.

THE collection of book-plates formed by the late J. R. Brown, which has recently been sold in a London auction-room, is supposed to have been the most extensive which has hitherto been thus dispersed. It contained 346 lots, of which fifteen alone included more than ten thousand book-plates. The collection of these interesting documents has only become popular within the last twenty or thirty years, though it existed as a hobby at least seventy years ago. Mr. W. J. Hardy in the treatise on book-plates which he contributed to the series of "Books about Books" recalls a day well within the memory of living collectors when there was no difficulty in the acquisition of book-plates. "We used to go," he writes, "to a shop in a dingy street leading off Oxford-street, and there select from a large clothes-basket as many book-plates as were new to our collection. The price was one penny apiece—new or old, dated or undated, English or foreign, that of Bishop Burnet, or David Garrick, or Mr. Jones, or Mr. Brown—all alike, a penny apiece; and I have no doubt, though I do not remember the fact, that there was the usual reduction on taking a quantity." The price has gone up since. The Ex-Libris Society, of which Mr. Brown was one of the founders, has done for the collection of book-plates what Andrew Millar did for literature. A single specimen of a rare or interesting book-plate now frequently sells for more than its original possessor probably paid for the whole edition. If only some diligent hunter could rout out a copy of that book-plate—for such it practically was—which Shakspeare designed for a noble patron, as Mr. Lee has just told us, it would probably beat all the records of the auction-room.

We cannot help thinking it rather a pity that the taste for book-plates has assumed such proportions. The natural consequence is that book-plates are ruthlessly extracted from the books in which an elder owner pasted them, and put into scrap-books. No man of taste can fail to regret what is, after all, a kind of Vandalism, nearly as bad as that Grangerising habit which has led to the destruction or mutilation of so many worthy books. Mr. Austin Dobson expresses the feeling of most lovers of books in his "Book-plate's Petition":—

"Must I these travell'd bones inter
In some collector's sepulchre?
Must I be torn herefrom and thrown
With frontispiece and colophon?
With vagrant E's and I's and O's,
The spoil of plunder'd folios!
With scraps and snippets that to me
Are naught but kitchen company!
Nay, rather, friend, this favour grant me—
Tear me at once, but don't transplant me."

One has almost more sympathy with the ingenious American who went to the trouble of forging Washington's book-plate in order to paste it in old volumes and sell them at enhanced prices, as having belonged to the father of his country. This argued a perverted but a comparatively lovable spirit. The proper form of a collection of book-plates is a library; and such a library would probably reward the man who formed it by having a commercial as well as a sentimental value far beyond that of the poor dissevered waifs which are rightly known as "Ex-Libris."—Manchester Guardian.

RICHARD HEBER'S LIBRARY.

THE greatest book sale, probably, that ever took place in the world was that of the collection of Richard Heber, in 1834. The catalogue was bound up in five thick octavo volumes. Yet this magnificent collection had but a small beginning—one small volume picked up at a stall, entitled: "The Vallie of Varietie," about which he was for a time in doubt whether "to buy or not to buy." Heber lived to think nothing of going hundreds of miles any time in search of a book not in his collection. Nor would one copy suffice him. "No man," he used to say, "can comfortably do without three copies of a book—one for a show copy at his country house, a second for his own use and reference, and a third to lend to his friends." Heber lived and died in a small gloomy house within the gates of Elliot's Brewery, between Brewer Street, Pimlico, and York Street, Westminster; here he had a portion of his extensive and noble library—a second portion occupied the whole of a house, from kitchen to attic, in James Street, Buckingham Gate—a third portion was at Hodnet, his country seat—and at Paris he had a fourth dépôt. He had a library in the High Street, Oxford, as well as at Antwerp, Brussels, Ghent, and other places in the low countries and in Germany. But Heber was no mere collector of books. He was a ripe scholar. The Church and literature at large owe him a debt which centuries will not repay; and many a modern library is now rich with spoils from the diligence, perseverance, and learning of Richard Heber.

Mr. EUGENE FIELD'S JOKE.

MR. EUGENE FIELD, the American, was a well-known book-collector, and one of his jokes, according to the Philadelphia Post, was to enter a book shop, and in the most solemn manner ask for an expurgated edition of Mrs. Hemans' poems. One day in Milwaukee he was walking along the street with his friend George Yenowine, when the latter halted in front of a book-shop, and said: "Gene, the proprietor of this place, is the most serious man I ever knew. He never saw a joke in his life. Wouldn't it be a good chance to try again for an expurgated Mrs. Hemans?" Without a word Field entered, asked for the proprietor, and then made the usual request. "That is a rather scarce book," came the reply. "Are you prepared to pay a fair price for it?" For just a second Field was taken aback; then he said, "Certainly, certainly; I—I know it's rare."

The man stepped to a case, took out a cheaply-bound volume, and handed it to Field, saying, "The price is five dollars."

Field took it nervously, opened the title-page, and read in correct print, "The Poems of Mrs. Felicia Hemans. Selected and Arranged, with all Objectionable Passages Excised, by George Yenowine, Editor of 'Isaac Watts for the Home', 'The Fireside', 'Hannah More,' etc.," with the usual publisher's name and date at the bottom.

Field glanced up at the bookseller. He stood there the very picture of sad solemnity.

"I'll take it," said Field, faintly, producing the money.

Outside Yenowine was missing. At his office the boy said that he had just left, saying that he was going to Standing Rock, Dakota, to keep an appointment with Sitting Bull.

BOOK MOTTOES.

Every great book is an action, and every great action is a book.—Luther.

There is no end of books, and yet we seem to need more every day.—Dr. Manton.

Literature is the immortality of speech.—Wilmott.

Literature is the thought of thinking souls.—Carlyle.

I pray thee, at thy leisure, glance within.

I do not care to be anywhere without having a book at hand.—Leigh Hunt.

It is with books as with men : a very small number play a great part.—Voltaire.

All the known world, excepting only savage nations, is governed by books.—Voltaire.

Books have many charming qualities to such as know how to choose them.—Montaigne.

We should make the same use of a book that the bee does of a flower : she steals sweets from it but does not injure it.—Colton.

Far more seemingly were it for thee to have thy study full of books than thy purses full of money.—Lilly.

Many times the reading of a book has made the fortune of a man—has decided his way in life.—Emerson.

Books are the first and last, the most home-felt, the most heart-felt of all our enjoyments.—Hazlitt.

A little library, growing larger every year, is an honourable part of a man's history.—Henry Ward Beecher.

If you want to understand any subject whatever, read the best book upon it you can hear of.—John Ruskin.

The better part of every man's education is that which he gives himself, and it is for this that a good library should furnish the opportunity and the means.—J. Russell Lowell.

Books are strange things. Although untongued and dumb, yet with their eloquence they sway the world.—S. W. Partridge.

The best books are those which every reader thinks he himself could have written. Nature, which is the highest excellence, seems familiar and level to all.—Pascal.

Books are men of higher stature ; and the only men that speak aloud for future times to hear.—E. B. Browning.

I expect that nine times out of ten it is more profitable, if not more agreeable, to read an old book over again, than to read a new one for the first time.—Lord Dudley.

Even a common auctioneer's catalogue of goods and chattels, suggests a thousand reflections to a peruser of any knowledge ; judge then what the case must be with a catalogue of Books.—Leigh Hunt.

The giving a Bookseller a price for his Books has this advantage, he that will do so, shall have the refusal of whatsoever comes to his hand, and so by that means get many things, which otherwise he never should have seen.—John Selden.

Study the catalogue which the second-hand Bookseller circulates ; it is full of information—it is the only kind of circular that should not go into the waste paper basket.—Daily News.

I have not found the greatest gratification, the greatest enjoyment, in the exciting plaudits of a public meeting. The purest pleasures I have ever known were in the calm intercourse and communion with the departed great through their books.—Richard Cobden.

A library is not, or ought not to be, a mere set of shelves packed with books. The books ought to be so co-ordinated in their topics and range that they have a voice of their own.—John Morley.

I believe the truest contemporary test of literature is when a book begins to sell second-hand, and the highest test, when no copy of the first edition of a book is known to exist.—Lord Rosebery.

There is nothing like books, of all things sold incomparably the cheapest, of all pleasures the least palling, they take up little room, keep quiet when not wanted, and when taken up, bring us face to face with the choicest men who have ever lived, at their choicest moments.—Samuel Palmer.

Even a millionaire will add a hundred per cent. to his daily pleasures if he becomes a bibliophile ; while to the man of business with a taste for books, who through the day has struggled in the battle of life with all its irritating rebuffs and anxieties, what a blessed season of pleasurable repose opens upon him as he enters his sanctum, where every article waits to him a welcome, and every book is a personal friend.—Wm. Blades.

TO BOOKSELLERS & PUBLISHERS

"THE CLIQUE."

This "unique paper" was founded for the benefit of the SECOND-HAND TRADE in 1890; and so marked has been its success that no bookseller of any standing can now afford to be without it.

The paper is published every Saturday, and supplied to the Trade only. This unique feature renders it the ONLY paper published in Great Britain in which trade prices can be fearlessly advertised, and it is thus the BEST MEDIUM for wholesale houses who desire to appeal direct to the trade.

As a means of obtaining "BOOKS WANTED" its columns have long been recognised, not only here but abroad, as the MOST SUCCESSFUL which have ever been placed at the service of advertisers. It is received and read by every Second-hand Bookseller in the United Kingdom and many abroad.

SUBSCRIPTION, 6s. PER ANNUM. Any live Second-hand Bookseller can make 6s. out of the first number he receives.

SPECIMEN NUMBER GRATIS on receipt of trade card. (Assistants, clerks, amateur dealers, &c., are not on any account supplied.)

Our motto has always been "THE TRADE FOR THE TRADE," and we claim that we have consistently followed this principle without any reference to gain or loss.

Our terms for advertisements are lower, notwithstanding that we stand FIRST among Second-hand Book-trade organs, than those of any paper in the world.

Dr. Foote's Home Cyclopædia

IGNORANCE KILLS, KNOWLEDGE SAVES

DON'T WORRY OR SUFFER: DON'T Quarrel or Divorce; Don't drug yourself and never say die. Seek and ye shall find hope, cheer and the cure for trouble in Dr. Foote's Home Cyclopædia of Sanitary, Social and Marital Science for fathers, mothers and all who hope to be. It is true "Plain Home Talk" and real "Medical Common Sense"—revised, enlarged, right up-to-date. 1,200 pages, 400 illustrations, 80 color plate pictures, 250 prescriptions—fully equal to ten "What you ought to know" books—a serious book for curious people and a sensible book for everyone. Every private library should have it—if but a few books. You need this one for study, reading, reference. Most for the money; price only $2.00, by mail direct (and Money Back if not satisfactory) or at all booksellers (demand edition of 1904). Agents Wanted (Ladies, too). Dr. J. H. Tilden (editor) says: "Dr. Foote's is the best. Several chapters are worth the cost. I don't know where to get so much for 10 times $1."

The Plague of Lust in Classical Antiquity—including Detailed Investigations into the Cult of Venus, and Phallic Worship, Brothels, The Feminine Disease of the Scythians, Paederastia, and Other Sexual Perversions amongst the Ancients, as Contributions towards the Exact Interpretation of their Writings, by JULIUS ROSENBAUM. Translated from the Sixth (unabridged) German edition, with complete and literal English rendering of all the Latin and Greek quotations. In two stout 8vo vols., finely printed on hand-made paper, price £5 5s. net.

The Satyricon of Petronius. A Literal and Complete Translation by Oscar Wilde with Notes and Introduction by AN OXFORD M.A. This edition is not only the most complete and brilliant ever done into English, but it constitutes also a typographical bijou, being printed in a limited number on hand-made paper in red and black throughout, price £1 11s. 6d.

What Never Dies. A strange and wonderful romance of love and passion in a country house, similar to the plot unfolded in Guy de Maupassant's "Lady Man," but told in more brilliant language. About 400 pages. This is Oscar Wilde's last book translated from the French of BARBEY D'AUREVILLY. Price 10s. 6d.

The Memoirs of a Lady's Maid. Translated into English from the French of OCTAVE MIRBEAU. Over 500 pages; twelve clever illustrations, price £1 10s.

The Well of Santa Clara. By ANATOLE FRANCE. (Authorised English Translation.) This collection of beautiful Stories ("Saint Satyr," "The Human Tragedy," "Doña Maria d'Avalos," etc., etc.) is now given for the first time in English. New Grasset characters have been used to print this work, limited to 500 copies on hand-made paper. With 21 clever Copper-plate Etchings by MARTIN VAN MAELE. Each page of Text is contained in an elegant artistic green border. The whole strongly bound in cloth, gilt top, price £1 10s.

Weird Women. Two stout volumes, bound in silk cloth, containing six marvellous stories of "Diabolical Females," by the famous BARBEY D'AUREVILLY. Thirteen Wood-Engravings, price £1 1s.

Human Gorillas: A Medical, Legal and Historical Study of the Crime of Rape. With a realistic frontispiece and 52 illustrations printed in the text. The only book in the English language dealing scientifically and historically with the Violation of Women. (Table of Contents sent for 3d.) Price £1 1s.

Untrodden Fields of Anthropology by Dr. JACOBUS X. . . . Observations on the Esoteric Manners and Customs of Semi-civilised Peoples. Two stout 8vo volumes of about 480 pages each, accompanied by a set of 24 Illustrations, price £2 10s.

PARIS.

The Basis of Passional Psychology by Dr. JACOBUS X. . . . consisting of two 8vo volumes of over 600 pages, finely printed on English antique paper, price (complete) £3 3s.

The Law Concerning Draped Virginity. This is a complete English translation, together with the original Latin text (opposite each page) of ADRIAN BEVERLAND's (aet. 1680) extraordinary work, De Stolatae Virginitatis Jure, done into English with Introduction and numerous Notes by FRANCIS D. BYRNE, Esq., B.A. (Honours) Lond., price £2 2s.

One Hundred Merrie and Delightful Stories. Literal and Unexpurgated translation of that old and racy French classic, Les Cent Nouvelles Nouvelles, with Fifty fine hand-coloured Illustrations bound up in their proper places. Two beautiful demy 8vo volumes, of (over) 540 pages, on fine, antique, English deckled-edged paper, bound in water-coloured silk, price (complete) £3 3s.

The Old Man Young Again, otherwise entitled in Arabic: the Book of The Return of the Old Man to the Condition of the Strength of Youthful in the Power of Coition. Literally translated from the Arabic by AN ENGLISH "BOHEMIAN." "Kitab Ruju'a as-Shaykh ila Sabah fi'l-Kurwat 'ala-l-Bah." With Translator's Foreword on the Age and Authorship of the Book; on the Various Kinds of Impotence; and a Description of the Degrees of Virility; The Romance of the Genital Instinct; Aphrodisiacs, their History, Nature and Use; Numerous important Notes illustrating the Text, and an Excursus, price £2 2s.

The Lives of Fair and Gallant Ladies. Now for the first time done into English from the French of PIERRE BOURDEILLE, SEIGNEUR DE BRANTÔME. In two crown 8vo volumes, each volume consisting of some 390 to 420 pages, with 24 and 26 full-page coloured illustrations by AD. LAMBRECHT. . . . Price of the work complete (with illustrations) £4 4s.

The Secret Cabinet of History by Dr. CABANES. Medico-Historical Glimpses into the Private Lives of Kings, Queens and other High Persons. One fine volume, price 12s. 6d.

The Chastisement of Mansour by HECTOR FRANCE. One volume with Eight Illustrations by BAZEILHAC. Price 10s. 6d.

ADVERTISE ! ADVERTISE !

I "AD" my goods in the springtime,
And I "ad" my goods in the fall,
And in the golden summer-time
I "ad" them most of all.

Through all the changing seasons,
While the stars shine in the skies,
I outsell my competitors—
Because I advertise.
